

MISSION STATEMENT
 We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.
"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

“The laundromat church”

In Just Tell the Truth: A Call to Faith, Hope and Courage, Richard Lischer tells the story of a priest who was assigned to start a ministry to the Latino community in a region where many were working on farms and in chicken-processing plants.

How to begin? A feasibility study? An advertising blitz? Here’s what the priest does:

He takes a card table, a hand-woven blanket, and some bread and a cruet of wine to the local laundromat and there he sets up shop. Within weeks, Pentecost happens and a congregation materializes. Soon the patrons are crossing themselves and waiting for a break in the Mass to move their laundry from the washers to the dryers. The “Laundromat Priest,” as he became known, intones the words of the liturgy during the spin cycle. A newspaper reported that the congregation “stands respectfully toward the rear of the washerette, as if occupying holy ground.”

It seems, to us anyway, that this ministry doesn’t have much promise. On the other hand, all it has is promise — and that is more than enough.

This church of ours begins in a room of confused and broken people. In the coming of the promised Spirit, they realize that Jesus lives among them in their love and care for one another. At Pentecost, the Spirit of God opens Peter and company to all kinds of possibilities for realizing the Kingdom of God that Jesus died for — and rose for. It’s the Spirit of God — invisible, difficult to define in mere words, but very real — that makes you and me and the folks gathered in that laundromat the Church of the Risen One. The Spirit is that great love that binds the Father to the Son and now binds the Father and the Son to us, the bond that makes us not just a clan or a club but a community of faith. It’s love that transcends words and laws and sentiments to embrace the heart and soul of each one of us. The Spirit of God is both a promise fulfilled and a promise yet to be realized. This Pentecost, may our community of the Risen Christ work to realize that promise of bringing to light God’s vision of a world reconciled in God’s peace and transformed in God’s compassion

Pentecost

Pentecost is a special day of worship.
The feast marks the end of the Easter season for Christians and commemorates the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the early followers of Jesus. The Church of God, began on Pentecost is given the mission of preaching
the Good News of the Kingdom of God.

Five steps for preventing child abuse takes all of us

Preventing child abuse is the work of our entire community. The best way to start taking up your part of this work is through learning the five steps for preventing child sexual abuse. Learn where child abuse happens, and how to recognize the signs of abuse and predatory behavior. If you have not gone through a VIRTUS® training program, this is a great time to do so. For more information, visit lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Today, Pentecost Sunday, marks the 18th anniversary of the New Stained Glass Media Ministry Media Mass. We have come a long way from our initial presentations to our present format with the added benefit of live streaming for all of our parishioners, and yes the world. We are a dedicated ministry of volunteers that work in keeping with Pope Francis's New Evangelizations through our Mission Statement.

“To Heighten the Worship Experience and Sacramental relationship of St. John Baptist de la Salle Parish Community by creatively integrating the use of Electronic Media with Word and Prayer”

We are always actively looking for new volunteers in our rewarding ministry. Please keep us in your prayers that the Holy Spirit continues to guide us. Thank you, our parishioners, for embracing our ministry the past 18 years.

Priest Retirement Fund

June 11th & 12th

We are truly blessed by the men who have given their lives in service to thousands of families as a priest. As life begins to change in their later years, so too do their needs. Together we are invited to join and bless those who have blessed us by making a meaningful gift to the Priest Retirement Fund. Have you ever wondered what happens to our priests after they retire from teaching, preaching, and serving on a regular basis? Where do they go? Who takes care of them? What do they need? Like us, they desire rest and have needs for care and medical treatment as they grow older. Unlike most of us, though, their modest salaries were never meant to provide for them after many years of service. Your gift to the Priest Retirement Fund is a meaningful investment and true blessing for the care and comfort of our spiritual fathers as they enter the later chapters in life.

They deserve nothing less.

Twenty-two parishes around the Archdiocese have been designated special jubilee year pilgrimage sites . ### Why Do Catholics Do That !

During the Profession of Faith, why do the clergy and some parishioners bow their head at “born of the Virgin Mary and became Man?”

The tradition of the Church over the centuries was to genuflect in reverence at that phrase because it refers to the mystery of the Incarnation, Jesus taking on a human nature in order to bring salvation to the world. The custom of the genuflection is preserved now only on the feast of Christmas and on March 25, the feast of the Annunciation. The rest of the year, a bow takes the place of the genuflection.

Should parishioners remain kneeling after Communion until all the extra hosts are put back in the Tabernacle?

The general custom has been to kneel until the Blessed Sacrament is placed in the Tabernacle. But it is equally appropriate to sit or stand. The primary consideration should be reverence and meditative prayer.

THE SPIRIT'S ACTIVE POWER

The mystery of the Trinity refers to one God in three persons. We frequently acknowledge Jesus as “the second person of the Trinity,” but referring also to the Spirit as a “person” comes less naturally. In religious art, the Holy Spirit often appears as a dove or, as in today’s reading from the Acts of the Apostles, tongues of fire. Much rarer are images of the Spirit as a “person” in recognizable human form. Today’s readings do not settle the issue of how to picture the Spirit, but they certainly give shape to the Spirit’s active power in the world and in each human heart. In Acts, the Spirit enables people to speak and understand a variety of languages. Paul’s letter to the Corinthians praises the Spirit for all kinds of spiritual gifts, services, and “workings.” Finally, in John’s Gospel, Jesus calls the Spirit our Advocate and our divine teacher.

Mass Etiquette

Show up at least a few minutes early. If for some reason you can't be on time, then try to sit in the back so you don't disturb others. Getting to Mass early allows you to pray and prepare yourself better for Mass

When we enter and leave Church, genuflect toward the Tabernacle. Christ is present for our sake. We acknowledge He is our Lord and God. If someone is physically unable to genuflect, then a bow is sufficient. During Mass, if you pass in front of the altar or tabernacle, bow reverently.

HELP! HELP! HELP!

Two important parts of living a life of stewardship are Time and Talent. Here at St John Baptist de la Salle each of ministry at our Parish needs more people. Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Alter Servers, Choirs members, and Bereavement Ministers.

Each and everyone of us makes up the Body of Christ which has no hands but yours! We each need to do our part. We can't sit back and say "someone else will do it." Each of us must be that someone! We are all called to participate in whatever way we can in doing the Lord's work. You will receive training for any of the ministries you are interested in and can serve at the Mass of your choosing.

Prayerfully consider fulfilling part of what Stewardship is all about and leave your name and contact information by calling the Parish Office at 818-363-2535, ex 221. You will be glad you did and you will surely be greatly blessed for your participation.
