

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.
"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

--John 15:5

Religious Education News!

2021 VIRTUAL LOS ANGELES RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CONGRESS – FEBRUARY 19-21

The Los Angeles Religious Education Congress is sponsored by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles Office of Religious Education. RE Congress is a dynamic gathering of the global church, welcoming all to meet Jesus through connection, learning and worship. RE Congress inspires, transforms, and sends us out to spread the joy of the Gospel, to be a voice for justice and to serve the needs of the world. This year's theme is "Proclaim the Promise."

Since 1970, you have had to travel to the Anaheim Convention Center to attend RE Congress. Now that our upcoming event will be virtual, you can attend right from home or work!

Register now for this spirit-filled and enriching weekend! You may access the registration book and register online by visiting:
www.RECongress.org

For more information contact the SRE Office:
re@sjbdls.org / (818) 368-1514

All are welcome

Adult: To whom have you been guilty of showing partiality? What can you do to correct that?

Child: How can you help others feel part of your class's or group's games and activities?

PARENTING POINTERS

Perhaps you already say a bedtime prayer with your child. Perhaps your children feel too old for this custom. Either way, in person or in spirit, try this universal prayer for your child: "May the Lord bless you and keep you! May the Lord's face shine upon you and be gracious to you! May the Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!"

(Numbers 6: 24-26)

Why it is so important to tell the truth

As parents, we teach our children that the truth is important. In fact, the truth is a critical part of the healing process for victim-survivors of abuse. When a victim-survivor tells the truth about abuse that has happened to him or her, it robs the secret of its power and begins to break down any fear surrounding it. This helps a victim-survivor on the path to being free from the effects of abuse and enables the church and other institutions to take appropriate action to keep others safe. For more information about the importance of truth-telling, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

FEAST OF FAITH The Sign of the Cross

At the beginning of our prayer, we make the sign of the cross together. This sign, simple and powerful, operates on many levels. We trace the sign of the cross over our bodies, reminding ourselves that the cross of Christ has become our source of resurrection, life, and grace. With this sign, we also profess our faith in the Trinity: the presider does not say “in the names,” but “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit”—three persons, one God. The sign of the cross is also a baptismal reminder, for every sign of the cross echoes the words spoken over us at our baptism, which marked our entry into the saving mystery of Christ. This many-layered sign is also our primary sign of blessing: the cross is traced over people, places, and things upon which we ask God to impart divine benediction. In blessing ourselves with the sign of the cross at the beginning of Mass, we acknowledge the mystery that has gathered us together: that Christ, the crucified and risen One, is living, and that we are members of his Body. Our response, our Amen, is our yes to all this, our first profession of faith.

The voice from heaven . . .

“I’m glad you called. It’s really kind of you. You’re one of the few people I know who understands what I’m going through . . .”

“I think I get it now. I have to keep my eye on the ball from the moment the pitcher throws it, and then swing. Let me try it again. Throw it, Dad . . . !”

“Yeah, Mom, I know I’ve been acting like a jerk. It’s just . . . Can we talk about it . . . ?”

“We’re so glad you could make it. You know, everyone asks about you when you’re not here. You’ve become very important to them . . .”

“You know, you raised a good kid . . .”

“Your gift is going to make a big difference . . .”

“You really shouldn’t have. But I’m so happy that you did . . .”

“Mom, Dad, meet your new grandchild . . . !”

“Thank you . . .”

“God bless you for your kindness . . .”

We hear the words — but we often miss that it’s God speaking the words. Throughout our lives, we can hear that voice of God affirming our offerings of understanding and kindness, our efforts to heal and reconcile, our sacrifices for those we love. In such voices of gratitude, God speaks his word of love and care for us. As God expresses his pleasure in his “beloved Son” at Jesus’ Baptism in today’s Gospel, God speaks his same joy and love in our own simple and ordinary attempts to imitate Jesus’ compassion, justice and reconciliation. May the Spirit we received at our own Baptisms continue to move us to do the work of Jesus’ Gospel, to “tear open the heavens” and give voice to the love of God in our homes and schools and communities and churches.
