MISSION STATEMENT
 We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.
"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

--John 15:5

CARDINAL McINTYRE FUND
FOR CHARITY ANNUAL COLLECTION IS TODAY

Since 1951, the Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity has offered hope for those in crisis situations throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. On May 5th and May 6th, all parishes in the Archdiocese will take up this Annual Collection. Your contribution goes directly toward emergency needs for children, adults, and families and provides one-time emergency help for food, utilities, medical, housing or funeral expenses. The goal of the Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity is service to the "neediest of the needy," those for whom no other resources exist. Please be as generous as possible. Envelopes will be in the pews next weekend.

MOTHER'S DAY CARDS

Mother's Day cards are in the pews. Return the completed printed envelopes in the collection basket so that intentions will be remembered in the Novena of Masses beginning on Mother's Day, May 13th.

Please, one card per family.

Love of your neighbor

Adult: How is love of others connected to love for God?

Child: Who needs Jesus' love this week? How can you show them his love?

Creamer and sugar bowl on a blue table cloth

For some time, Mother and Daughter lived at an affectionate arm's length, a kind of truce after a long siege of parent-teenage conflict. Part of their differences were temperamental. Mother loved designer clothes, keeping a perfect house, loving the grand gesture. Daughter preferred walking on the beach in her khakis, a table for two, the intimate chat. But the times each grew up in also, defined their different perspectives, the elder woman sacrificed her dream of a career in music to raise a family, the younger woman headed off to graduate school to write about the social ills her mother's generation had created or failed to solve.

Then one day, Daughter was passing through a crafts shop. She saw a creamer and sugar bowl she knew her mother would love. Call it a delayed epiphany. She bought them and sent them to her mother. She can still hear the joy in her mother's voice when she called to thank her. A week later, a package arrived from her mother, a beautiful table cloth, a simple cotton print in blue, her daughter's favorite color.

After this exchange of gifts, Mother and Daughter found a new ease. Mother offered her matchless color sense for sweaters Daughter was knitting for her toddler. Daughter consulted her mother for recipes. The two began attending plays and concerts together, their favorite, Beethoven. The daughter came to see that despite all that divided them, her mother simply loved being with her. And they didn't need the best table in the house.

After her mother died, she found a folder in which her mother kept every article her daughter had ever written. She had never mentioned it. But by now her daughter understood. It wasn't her achievements that her mother cherished, any more than the ornaments of her own ambitions. What mattered all along was very simple. They just had to stop wanting what they thought the other should want and be, and, instead, honoring and appreciating who the other actually is and wants her life to be.

[From "A daughter cherishes the threads of a mother's gift" by Kathleen Hirsch, The Boston Globe, May 6, 2016.]

Sometimes the hardest love to express is our love for those who matter most to us. A daughter re-imagines her relationship with her mother through a simple gift meant only to bring her joy, a generational divide is bridged by grace and gratitude for the gifts each woman is able to give to the other. The love that Jesus asks us to embrace, "commands" us to embrace, is centered in the happiness of the other, not what we think their happiness should be. Such love is possible only when we put aside our own expectations, demands, and interests in order to realize the joys and dreams of those we love. Jesus asks us to love one another as he has loved us, to put others before ourselves, to seek our joy in bringing joy to those we love and who love us, to honor and cherish one another, simply because we are all sons and daughters of the God of mercy and compassion.

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

In the Gospel for the Sixth Sunday of Easter we are met with an extraordinary challenge. Jesus commands us to "love one another as I love you" (John 15:12). The letter from John echoes this command. Of course, we are to love those in our family, those we work with, those we like. But the scriptures make clear that we are also to love those we never notice, those we purposely avoid, and even those we are tempted to despise.

In this Sunday's selection from the Acts of the Apostles Peter shows us how far God's love extends, and how far our love should extend in response. Peter realizes that God no longer "shows partiality" to the Jews, sharing divine love exclusively with them. Christ has revealed that God's love extends to all people, and so should ours.

Healthy Tip Of The Week

Eat Avocados

For dry skin, incorporate more avocados into your diet. They're rich in monounsaturated fat and vitamin E, both of which promote healthy skin. Try them on salads and sandwiches, and even in smoothies.
