MISSION STATEMENT
 We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.
"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

--John 15:5

New Stained Glass Media
Ministry News
De La Salle goes viral!

The Media Ministry is excited to announce that the full 9:00 a.m. Mass is now available each week, streaming live and archived on YouTube. This new service makes the parish visible to the online community and is a special benefit for parishioners who are homebound.

Several sick members of the parish who can't get to church have thanked us tearfully for the link, keeping them connected to the parish community. To view the Mass, go to www.youtube.com and search for St John Baptist parish Granada Hills. There is also a link on the parish website: go to www.sjbdls.com and click on the red banner "YouTube, Subscribe to Our Channel." Want to join us as we harness modern technology to highlight our timeless faith? Please contact Don Jacob at: media@dls.org to find out more about this dynamic ministry.

Gifts of hope

Adult: When has the generous gift of another offered you hope?

Child: What loving gift could you give to another person this week?

The holiness of table

If a home has a center, it's the table. As families, we gather every day at a table, be it a beautifully crafted table in a reserved room of the house, a granite counter top on one side of an island in the kitchen, a folding table in the backyard for those summer nights when we grill.

But tables are never just about food. At our tables we experience the goodness of creation in the bounty of the harvest blessed and shared. At our tables we encounter a staggering history of needs felt, met, or denied of stammered confessions, of hands groping for the last crust of bread, of glasses glowing, lifted, and clinked in joy and determination, of accusations and reprieves.

Tables are the places where we learn who we are, where we are loved and welcomed, no matter what. At our family table we sit neither at the last place nor the first place but at our place, and learn over time that we are not the center of the table but make up its heart. The holiness of new loves, of life's milestone celebrations, of consolation at times of loss and pain is found at our tables, where God is the unseen but always a present Guest.

[Suggested by Eucharist as Sacrament of Initiation by Nathan D. Mitchell.]

In the miracle of the loaves and fish, Jesus transforms a crowd of all ages, talents, abilities and backgrounds into a community of generosity. That vision of being a Eucharistic community is re-created each time we gather at this parish table and at our own family tables. That is the challenge of the Gospel and the mandate of the Eucharist that is foreshadowed in this miracle story: to take up the hard work of reconciliation and compassion begun by God, who dwells in our midst; to humbly and lovingly bring the peace of God's dwelling place into our own homes; to become the body and blood of Jesus that we receive at his table where all - saints and sinners - are welcomed.

Gender divides in childhood can perpetuate abusive behaviors

Parents of young children have likely heard the phrase “boys will be boys” many times, usually to excuse so-called “typical boy” behaviors. But this rationalization can extend dangerously through adulthood, to excuse sexual assault and harassment. The messages received by young children have lasting effects. Boys hear that they need to hide their emotions, so if they are abused, they’re less likely to come forward. Girls hear that boys can be rough or rude, and learn to tolerate rather than push back. Eliminating this gender divide early may help combat sexual abuse and assault. WEEKLY MIRACLE

This week marks the beginning of a kind of "liturgical detour." We have been listening to Saint Mark's Gospel during this liturgical year (Year B). Today we begin to hear a long section from John's Gospel, starting with the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. This miracle story is a prelude to the Lord's statements that we will begin hearing in a few weeks, in which Jesus refers to himself as the "bread of life." Each week we witness a miracle at Mass. We do not see a multiplication of loaves before us. What our eyes of faith allow us to see is the miracle of the transformation of common elements, bread and wine, into the Lord's Body and Blood. Once we have received the Lord, the multiplication begins, for in the Eucharist we are strengthened to multiply our efforts to feed the poor, shelter the homeless, and bring comfort to the despairing.
