MISSION STATEMENT
 We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.
"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

The eyes of faith

Adult: When has your faith helped you believe without "seeing signs" from God?

Child: Who helps you believe in things you cannot see?

The terribly, tragically sad man

Once there was a happy little boy who said to God one day, "O God, I want to live in a big house with a big porch, two Saint Bernards, and a garden in the back. I want to marry a woman who is tall and very beautiful and kind, with long, black hair, blue eyes, and who plays the guitar and sings in a clear, high voice. I want three strong sons to play football with me. When they grow up, one will be a great scientist, one will be a Senator, and the youngest will quarterback for the Packers. I want to sail vast oceans and climb the highest mountains. I want to drive a red Ferrari and never have to pick up after myself."

God said, "That sounds like a nice dream. I want you to be happy."

But one day, the boy hurt his knee playing football. His dream of being an adventurer was over. So he studied marketing and started a medical supply company. He met a pretty woman at school, who was very warm and kind. She wasn't glamorous, she wasn't a musician, but she was a wonderful cook and a talented artist. Because of his work, they lived in the city in an apartment. A small balcony served as the big porch, all they had room for was a fluffy cat. They had three daughters, (not sons), the loveliest of the three had to use a wheelchair. He made enough money for his family to live comfortably, but he didn't drive a red Ferrari, and with three daughters, he spent a lot of time picking things up.

Then, one morning, he woke up very sad.

He confided to a friend his disappointment that his wife was not the beautiful, glamorous musician he had dreamed of. His friend tried to reassure him that his wife was kind and generous. But the man wasn't listening.

He shared with his wife his disappointment with their apartment instead of the big house he dreamed of having. She reminded him of the comfortable happy home and their three beautiful daughters. But the man wasn't listening.

He went to see a therapist and went on about how he dreamed of being a great adventurer and driving a Ferrari and not have to pick up after himself. The therapist pointed out that the medical supplies and equipment he sold saved many lives. But the man wasn't listening. The therapist charged him $200 and sent him home.

He confessed to a priest that he had dreamed of having three strong sons. The priest said that he had been blessed with three beautiful, intelligent, and gracious daughters. But the man wasn't listening. He was so sad that he became very sick. Late one night, alone in his hospital room, the man said to God, "Remember when I was a boy and I told you what I wanted?" "It was a lovely dream," God said.

"Why didn't you give me those things?"

"I could have," God replied, "but I wanted to surprise you with things you didn't dream of. Your life is one of the best packages I've put together." "Yes," interrupted the man. But I thought you were going to give me what I wanted."

"And I thought you were going to give me what I really wanted," God said. "To be happy with what I had given you."

And that night the terribly, tragically sad man began to dream a new dream. And he became very happy.

[Adapted from an essay by Loren Seibold in Sign of the Times.]

As "the terribly, tragically sad man" discovers, a life of true joy and meaning is driven not by "perishable" material things and fleeting experiences, but by the "nonperishable" values of God. Perhaps the most difficult challenge of our time is to accomplish the "work" of God while "working" to succeed in our careers, to make a place in our homes and hearts for the "bread" that is Christ amid the "fast food" being shoved at us from every direction. May God give us the wisdom to live lives grounded in the "food that endures" beyond the fleeting and the perishable, the "bread of heaven" that feeds and nurtures us for our own life's journey to the dwelling place of God.

Please pray for the recovery of:

Get ready for back to school!

It's that time of year again to pack up your children's backpacks and send them off to make new friends and learn new things. Before the first day of school, parents should take steps to ensure their child's safety while they're in the care of teachers and school staff. Meet all the teachers and adults that your children will see regularly. Talk to your kids about basic ground rules for safety, privacy, and security. For young children, shared bathrooms are new, and they should know what to expect. Brush up on the school's plans for security too. ### Health Tip Of The Week

Summer drinks can be detrimental to your waistline. Watch out for sodas, sugary lemonades, iced teas, and smoothies with sugar added, also alcoholic beverages, (especially if the drink has a fancy name).

Iced cold water or seltzer is your best choice, but feel free to squeeze in some fresh lemons, limes, cucumber, mint, or berries for a refreshing drink.

DLS School News

The school has been alive with building activity. K3, and the 3rd Kindergarten, is coming along quickly now. The new entrance off the main hallway is almost complete. The new floor, tables, chairs, carpets, white boards, sleeping mats, and everything necessary for our Kinder students will be arriving. Next, the TK/K play yard is finally going to be delivered this week. Msgr. Milbauer, Mrs. Gastelo, and I have been in constant contact with the Pure Play Co. and the Archdiocese to keep things moving and to meet our deadline. The cement stairs at the end of the modular classrooms have been removed to make room for the new area. We are very excited to have this play yard for our youngest students. This project is possible because of the parish funds from the festivals. Thank you to all our parents who work very hard to make the festival a success and to the parish who support this event with their attendance, their donations, and their hard work. The school appreciates your generous contribution to the play yard. Approximately 90 TK and Kinder students will use this facility. Finally, safety is always paramount in our minds when making decisions about the school. A few years ago the first cameras were installed for security reasons. Now with our continued growth, we voted to upgrade the camera system. 27 new cameras will be installed the week of July 30th. The company, Blackstone Technologies and our tech support company, Ntiva, have prepared everything necessary for the new cameras. The cameras will cover the new play yard and the rest of the grounds and inside of the school. Thank you to the amazing PTO and their fundraising efforts who gave the school the funds to purchase the cameras. Again, thank you to our parents who support and work at the PTO events.

GOD'S WORK

We are so busy! Most of us have more than one job to do, and we never seem to have enough time. We are workers, volunteers, parents, friends, and most of us are more than one thing at a time. But which of these is the work of God?

We seldom view our ordinary work as being the work of God. We may think that we have to be ministers or priests, missionaries, or charity workers, engaged full-time in works formally identified as being "God's work." But everything we do with a faithful heart and with love for others is God's work. We each have our own role to fill in the world, and many gifts are necessary. We cannot always see the direct connection of our daily work to the plan of God. But we trust and we believe that God leads us to do what is needed, where it is needed. What is "God's work?" "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent"

(John 6:29).
