MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ.

"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

--John 15:5

A delayed meeting

Every day the pastor of a busy Pittsburgh parish saw them walk by the church, a stooped-over woman with a scarf around her hair, shuffling alongside the man and their dog. But the pastor realized one day that he hadn't seen her for a while. Now it was just the old man and the old black lab, both getting on in years. All these years the pastor saw the old man, he would wave, and then get on to the next service or meeting. He never saw the man or woman in church.

One day the pastor was running late. Getting out of his car and rushing into the building, he found himself directly in the path of the man and his dog on their daily walk. He hustled past the old man with a quick, “Hi, how ya doing?” The old man stood there looking at the pastor with yellowed eyes and said nothing. The pastor had a choice, get to his important meeting or be a real minister who stops, turns around, introduces himself and asks this man about his missing wife. The pastor decided to keep moving, and felt terrible for the rest of the day.

A few weeks later, the pastor saw the man again. The pastor stopped and began an apology he had been rehearsing since that afternoon. But the old man interrupted him with a waving hand and said, “I know how busy you folks are ‘cause I see all the cars around this church all the time.” The pastor couldn’t accept his kindness and continued to apologize for his rudeness. He apologized for not knowing his name after all these years and gently asked about the woman who used to walk with him. The old man smiled and glanced up at the bare winter tree limbs. “That was my wife. She died a while back. Now it’s just ol’ Sancho and me. But we’re getting along pretty well,” and jiggling the leash, added, “Aren’t we, boy?”

They continued to talk a bit, like neighbors. As they talked, the old man looked at the pastor with those yellow eyes and seemed to sense the clergyman’s quandary. “I’ve never been a church-going kind of guy. It seems hypocritical to start now that I’m so close to being dead myself. Still, it’s a comfort knowing that I live near people who believe in stuff like heaven. I lean a lot these days, if you know what I mean.”

The pastor understood. And he understood in a way he hadn’t before what it meant to “love your neighbor,” what it meant to be Jesus’ disciple, what it meant to be a pastor.

(From “A delayed meeting” by M. Craig Barnes, The Christian Century, March 22, 2011.)

This pastor learned a powerful lesson about both being church and living the sabbath. Our very reason for being a church is centered in the compassion and peace of the Gospel Jesus who gathered us together as the people of God. And the sabbath, the day God sets aside as a day of thanksgiving, is most fittingly observed as a day to express such holy gratitude in works of generosity as well as words of praise. In today’s Gospel, Jesus’ healing of the woman does not undermine the holiness of the sabbath, on the contrary, Jesus’ action irrevocably links sabbath prayer and ritual to the unlimited and unconditional mercy of God; Jesus’ action underscores the call of the synagogue community to be more than a place of ritual observance but a place where the mercy and peace of God are found by all who come to its door. May our church be such a community of peace; may the sabbath spirit of grateful praise extend into every day of our busy week.

Keep an eye out during social events at school and church

Now that your children are getting ready to head back to school, it's a good time to re-familiarize yourself with the school or church property.

Keep a special lookout for any rooms or areas where supervision is low, and where a predator could take a child without being noticed. During school events, these are the places to watch. You should also take note of any locked doors, areas under bleachers or in stairwells, or anywhere else suspicious. Child safety should be a priority for all events. Learn more from the VIRTUS® article “Premises Safety... Always a High Priority” at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

SAVE THE DATE!!

Are you ready for an inspiring and elegant evening? The Pregnancy Counseling Center is having their “Seeing Life Clearly” annual fundraiser at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library on Saturday, October 19th. Please consider sponsoring a table of ten for $1250. Invite your family and friends!
