

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Parish Community of Saint John Baptist de la Salle recognize that we are chosen by Christ and have as our mission to bring forth the fruits of the True Vine in response to the needs of our Parish Community through the recognition of active Parish Organizations and the cultivation of persons and groups not yet sharing in the mystery of the True Vine, Jesus Christ. "I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

--John 15:5

St. John Baptist de la Salle
Marriage Convalidation
Mass to be celebrated on February 2, 2020
at 12:00 noon

“It is in the presence of the Lord, who reveals Himself and the gift of His grace, that will render your marriage full and profoundly true.”-Pope Francis

The Catholic Church law ordinarily requires baptized Roman Catholics to marry before a priest or deacon. Catholics who exchange vows in the presence of ministers from other religious traditions or civil officials are not considered validly married in the eyes of the Catholic Church. Regardless of what happened in the past, the Catholic Church invites you to bring new meaning to your lives by embracing the vocation of marriage and dedicating your family’s mission to sharing God’s love.

If you and your spouse want to be considered for the special Convalidation Mass and have been together for 3 years or more, contact: Elizabeth Moreno at 818-363-2535 X 224 by October 31, 2019

Discerning God’s will

Adult: How do you try to discover what God is asking of you?

Child: When is it hard for you to know the right thing to do? Who helps you know?

Taking the “lowest place”

On a morning you’re running late (of course!), a construction detail is forcing two lanes of downtown traffic into one. The demolition derby is underway: cars battling to squeeze into the one open lane, and compounding the confusion are those drivers who believe that their schedules are so much more important who honk and scream their way ahead of everyone else. Such tangled commutes should make us pause and realize the patience and humility of the “lowest place.”

Or you’re trying to get two hours’ worth of errands done in 30 minutes. You’re making good time, until you hit a line at one store. The sales associate is young, and new. She’s struggling to help this one customer who has an endless stream of questions. She doesn’t know the stock well enough to answer them all so she has to constantly consult the manager. Meanwhile, the line is growing longer and your patience is growing shorter. Every customer’s order is a struggle for the poor kid. By the time it’s your turn to check out, you’re barely civil to her. You need to calm down and take the “lowest place.”

You love having people over for dinner. But you’ve made it clear: it’s your kitchen. Everyone’s welcome to gather and enjoy a glass of wine, but PLEASE DON’T HELP! Your guests appreciate your hospitality, but chances are they would enjoy the evening even more if there was more of you. So perhaps you might take your foot off the gas and welcome their contributions to the feast, let them help with the clean-up. Cede control for the sake of the “lowest place.”

The “lowest place” Jesus speaks of in today’s Gospel is more a matter of attitude than location, a question of generosity rather than place setting. Jesus asks us to see one another from the perspective of Christ-like humility that realizes that we are not the center of all things but part of a much larger world and to embrace a spirit of Gospel-centered gratitude for all the blessings we have received, not because of anything we have done to deserve them, but only because of the complete and unconditional love of God for us.

The right kind of touch is important for children

Children are often naturally affectionate and trusting, and this can lead to unexpected hugs or touches that indicate their love for the adults in their lives. For adults who are aware that some touching can be inappropriate or can appear to be a boundary violation even though it was initiated by the child, it can be difficult to respond in these instances. Healthy, appropriate touch is important for children. Use these instances as teachable moments where you can affirm your affection in words and guide an appropriate touch by description and example. Some examples of this could include patting a child on the shoulder or back, high fives, holding hands out of the classroom or when crossing the street, or helping a young child tie his shoelaces. As part of our commitment, the Archdiocese has updated the www.archla.org/protect website with valuable information and resources on how to protect our children and young people from child sexual abuse. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Healing Power of Touch, Part II" at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

CONCERN AMERICA CRAFT SALE

On Sunday, September 15, volunteers for Concern America will be here at St. John Baptist De La Salle Church with a Craft Sale featuring unique quality handcrafts that provide us with the opportunity to purchase conscientiously. The gifts we find for special events, holidays, or to brighten our own homes are an exchange of caring with impoverished communities in developing countries. This year we have many new crafts from Bangladesh, El Salvador, Guatemala, and Mexico. Inspired by nature, these beautifully handcrafted textiles, ceramics and wood products, honor indigenous traditions, and were selected to be reminders that when a Concern America product is purchased we are providing a source of income to materially poor communities; promoting human scale endeavors, eco-friendly work patterns, and fair working conditions. Concern America, is an international development organization based in Santa Ana, CA. (714) 953-8575. You may view of selection of their crafts on their web site: www.concernamerica.org

Dear Fr. Ramon and De La Salle Parishioner's
